To Whom It May Concern

The Sun Yat Sen Nanyang Memorial Hall (SYSNMH), a heritage institution managed by the National Heritage Board (NHB), traces Dr. Sun Yat Sen's revolutionary activities in the Southeast Asian region and highlights the impact of the 1911 Revolution on Singapore as well as Singapore's contributions to the Revolution.

SYSNMH acknowledges Ms Chan Sue Meng's endeavour to develop the historical marker trail "Road to Revolution: Dr. Sun Yat Sen and His Comrades in Ipoh". The trail highlights the shared history of Chinese pioneers in SE Asia who had contributed significantly to Dr. Sun's vision and successful mission.

The memorial hall noted that the abovementioned trail is based on "Road to Revolution: Dr. Sun Yat Sen and His Comrades in Ipoh" that links Kinta Valley (Perak) to Dr. Sun. This work is authored by Ms Chan and funded and published by SYSNMH in 2013.

We would like to congratulate Ms Chan on the successful launch of the trail and to commend her on her efforts to promote greater public awareness of Dr. Sun and his supporters, and the links between Dr. Sun and the region.

Yours Sincerely,

Trudy Loh
